I still don't know how I feel about that.

It had great food, but no atmosphere.*

SPRINGTIME OBSERVATIONS

Every year, I promise to start jogging in the spring ... and every year, I discover how much I love sitting.

Birds chirping at 5 a.m.:
Nature's way of saying, "Time to wake up, or else!"

No one talks about how the Easter Bunny is just Santa Claus with better cardio.

Why do squirrels always look so suspicious? Probably plotting world domination—one acorn at a time.

Allergy season: When Mother Nature sends flowers ... and a box of tissues.

I was going to plant a garden, but then I realized – those plants are just a fancy buffet for rabbits.

Why is spring cleaning a thing? Shouldn't we just let nature take its course and call it "rustic charm"?

April showers bring May flowers ... but nobody mentions the mud you'll track in until June.

Spring fashion:
That glorious time when you're too cold for shorts but too warm for a coat—welcome to Jacket Limbo.

What do you call a musician with problems?
A trebled man.

I tried to organize an Easter egg hunt. It was a real scramble.

YES, WE DO HAVE TOY DOCTOR KITS, WHAT IS YOUR CHILD SPECIALIZING IN?

Two windmills are standing on a wind farm. One asks, "What's your favorite kind of music?" The other replies, "I'm a big metal fan."

Why don't rabbits ever get hot in the spring? They have hare conditioning.

The banker fell overboard from a friend's sailboat. The friend grabbed a life preserver, held it up, not knowing if the banker could swim, and shouted, "Can you float alone?" "Obviously," the banker replied, "but this is quite an interesting time to talk business."
