A Good Mix of Fun from Your Locally Owned Printer.

When my psychiatrist diagnosed me with German sausage phobia, I feared the wurst.

I told my wife she should embrace her mistakes. So she gave me a hug.

My boss: Send me one of your funny jokes.
Me: I'm busy working. I'll send one later.
My Boss: That's hilarious. Send another one!

My email password has been hacked. That's the third time I've had to rename my cat.

I accidentally swallowed some food coloring. The doctor says I'm fine, but I feel like I've dyed a little inside.

Me: It's too nice out to work.
Also me: It's too hot out to be outside.
Result: Back to the desk it is.

Fred: I think I'm going to start eating healthier.
Jim: Great idea! Start by chewing your food slower ... and maybe not at midnight.

Me: Doc, I've been sunburned, bug-bitten, and I think I pulled a muscle chasing the ice cream truck.
Doctor: Ah, yes – classic case of summer.

Knock, knock.
Who's there?
Harry.
Harry who?
Harry up and answer the door!

What did the green grape say to the purple grape?
Breathe! BREATHE!!

THE (NOT-SO) OFFICIAL FIREWORK SAFETY GUIDE

Warning: Do not point at people (unless you want an impromptu talent show).

Caution: May lead to excessive patriotic feelings and impromptu Star-Spangled Banner sing-alongs.

Warning: May cause neighbors to pretend they're in a war movie.

Caution: May cause your dog to plan a great escape.

Warning: This firework might have more drama than your last team meeting.

Caution: You might suddenly think you're a firework expert after lighting this one.

Warning: Side effects may include spontaneous dancing and oohs and aahs for hours.

Caution: May cause you to question your ability to count down from three.

Warning: Fireworks could cause immediate attachment to sparkler sticks (proceed with glitter).
